REACH has not resulted in any changes of the chemical composition and/or performance of the powder products, which you purchase from the Höganäs Group as per the date of this statement. Should this happen at a later stage, it is our intention to provide you with information about significant changes in the properties or performance of such powder products to help you manage any effects that such changes may have on your own processes or requirements.

Höganäs has notified ECHA of products that are subject to the European Regulation on Classification, Labelling and Packaging (CLP) of substances and mixtures. A system for issuing Safety Data Sheets compliant with CLP is implemented within the Höganäs Group.
